Health Fee Exemption

To be eligible for an exemption from the mandatory health fee, a student must be enrolled at a location away from the Oswego campus, in a class that begins after 4:00 pm, or in a distance learning course. If you meet any of these conditions, do not pay the health fee.

Methods Of Payment

Payment of tuition and fees for summer courses may be made online, by mail, or in person.

ONLINE – Payment may be made online at myOswego, using a credit card or e-check, by proceeding to the “Account Summary” link.

BY MAIL – Payment may be made by mail with a check or money order.

IN PERSON – Payment may be made in person with a check, money order, or credit card.

Please make checks payable to: SUNY Oswego

Returned Check Policy

All returned checks will incur a $20.00 Returned Check Fee. This includes checks written for tuition and fees and checks written to satisfy obligations for parking fines, library fines, etc. that need to be cleared prior to finalizing registration.

Returned checks are automatically redeposited unless your financial institution states otherwise. Failure to replace the returned check in a timely manner could result in the account being turned over to the Attorney General’s Office for collection. A returned check must be replaced with a certified check, money order, or cash payment.
