Paris

Founded by the Romans, conquered by the Franks, center of the French Revolution, capital of modern France, Paris has become a global center of artistic, intellectual and cultural life. Famous art museums, such as the Louvre and the Musée d’Orsay, and architectural achievements such as Notre Dame, the Eiffel Tower and the Centre Pompidou, as well as the cafés, fine restaurants, and night life make Paris one of the world’s greatest cities. Learn about Paris by taking GLS 100 Global Cities: Paris during Q-3 and spend Spring Break in Paris visiting historical and cultural sites discussed in the course and experience the pace of contemporary Parisian life.
